SUBJECT: [REDACTED]
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On January 4, 1950, I received a telephone call from SAC Murphy, Phoenix, in which he advised that an individual giving the name of [redacted] checked into the Westward Ho Hotel, Phoenix, Arizona, on January 3, 1950, with [redacted] reportedly [redacted] to a former Ambassador to England. [redacted] is presently at St. Monica's Hospital, Phoenix, where she is undergoing surgery as a result of an unmerciful beating given to her by [redacted] During the day of January 4, 1950, [redacted] was in his room drinking and creating disturbances there. [redacted] claims to be an employee of the U. S. State Department assigned to the American Legation at Damascus. Mr. Murphy wanted to know whether subject was in fact an employee of the State Department or whether he was impersonating such an official.

Special Agent R. R. Roach learned from the State Department that [] is well-known to them and that he is a drunkard and no good. His wife comes from Arizona and is related to a Congressman from that state. [] is a foreign service officer with the State Department and was recently assigned to the American Legation at Damascus. He has been recalled and is presently in the United States for reassignment. He was previously in Palestine but was recalled from there after he became drunk and threw some files around. He is described as being 5'4" to 5'6", small build, red face, thinning hair. The State Department advised Special Agent Roach that they had had only trouble with [] and would like to be advised of his present escapades.

SAC Murphy was advised of the above on January 4, 1950.

That this memorandum be forwarded to the Security Division, Liaison Section in order that the State Department can be advised concerning [redacted] activities in Phoenix, which information was requested by the State Department.

SAC Scheidt of New York called and advised that he had received a call today from a Mr. Dan Scholtz, former Governor of Florida; that Mr. Scholtz stated that he had been thinking of calling the Director but requested Mr. Scheidt to pass the information on to you.

Mr. Scholtz stated that he had just returned from a three-month trip to Japan; that he had met General MacArthur and his staff and had found them all to be wonderful, but that he had run into a number of others in the civilian government who were not so good; that while in Japan he had met retired General Frayne Baker, Chairman of the Foreign Investment Board; that Mr. Scholtz had wanted to obtain a shipping license and had obtained approval for it apparently through General Baker. General Baker advised Scholtz that he was very much perturbed about the action of some individuals in the State Department; that on occasions he had received approval for some action from the State Department and a week or so later a secret or classified memorandum would arrive reversing this action and, according to Baker, it indicated to him that the person sending this memorandum was working against the best interests of the United States. Baker advised Scholtz that apparently the worst persons are [redacted] of the State Department and a man named [redacted] believed to be in the Treasury Department.

Scholtz stated that since returning he had seen a story in the newspaper concerning Formosa indicating that [redacted] of the State Department had prepared a memorandum writing off Formosa as lost and that a secret document of the Department of December 23 apparently was leaving Formosa to the mercy of the Russians. Baker was so insistent that he was worried about the State Department policy and that he wanted to pass this on to Mr. Scholtz and Scholtz in turn desired to pass the information on to you.

I instructed Mr. Scheidt to confirm the above by letter.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. JONES

RE: EDWARD WARE BARRETT

A clipping from the Washington Star for December 31, 1949, carrying a story on the appointment of Barrett to the post of Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs is attached.

Results of Review of File:

Barret was investigated by the Bureau (77-20557) when he went into the Office of Coordinator of Information (later O.W.I.) in early 1942. Nothing derogatory was developed. He was with O.W.I. for most of the war and was Director of overseas operations of O.W.I. from 1944 on. (61-7566).

He has been with "Newsweek" since 1937 except for his hitch with O.W.I., and the clipping reflects he was editorial director of Newsweek when he was appointed to his new post.

File reflect no contact between him and the Bureau.

[redacted] one of Barrett's references for employment with O.W.I., spoke very highly of Barrett.

RECOMMENDATION:

Though there is nothing derogatory in files, neither is there contact of any sort upon which we could predicate a letter of congratulations, and I recommend that none be sent.

Information was made available to the Bureau in November, 1949, that the then Secretary of Interior Julius Krug had sent a letter of protest to the Attorney General concerning the Bureau's handling of the Voice of America cases on . It was stated that the Bureau erroneously reported information in these investigations which dealt with the loyalty of Commissioner of Reclamation, Department of the Interior. Upon receipt of this complaint, it was immediately realized that the State Department, to whom the Voice of America investigations had been submitted, had made the information contained therein available to the Department of the Interior, which was contrary to the Bureau's understanding in the handling of our confidential reports.

After considerable checking and delay on behalf of the State Department, it was determined that the Security Division of the State Department did, in fact, transmit the Bureau's investigative reports on to the Department of the Interior for evaluation and return. This was done by the State Department under the date of September 20, 1949. The Interior Department returned the reports to the State Department by letter dated November 4, 1949, at which time they certified to the State Department concerning the loyalty of . This certification was based, according to Interior, upon the reports themselves and the unqualified recommendation of the Director of the individuals' Bureau Commissioner of Reclamation).

With these facts in mind, Mr. Roach confronted Mr. Donald Nicholson (former Bureau Agent), Chief, Security Division, State Department, and pointed out to him that the referral of the Bureau's reports by the State Department to the Interior Department was a violation of the restrictions placed upon the reports by the Bureau and contrary to the desires of the Attorney General. It was also pointed out to Mr. Nicholson by Mr. Roach that the Bureau transmitted the reports to the State Department for their use only and should not have been sent on to another Governmental agency without clearance from us. The desires of the Attorney General concerning the transmittal of the FBI reports were called to Mr. Nicholson's attention. The Attorney General's comments in this regard are set forth in his letter of June 17, 1948, to the Secretary of Agriculture in which he states, "Such exchange of information within the Executive Branch of Government is a matter wholly within the jurisdiction and responsibility of the heads of the several departments and agencies, although the reports themselves should not be transferred from one agency to another."

RRR:arm

FIVE

After this was pointed out to Mr. Nicholson, he readily agreed that he had been in error in transmitting the Bureau's reports to another Governmental agency and stated that he wanted to do what the Bureau desired to rectify such procedure. He stated that a procedure had been set up by the State Department for the referral of FBI reports to the interested agency when its personnel was being used on the Voice Program. He stated that Undersecretary [] had thought it advisable that the State Department should not pass upon the loyalty, integrity, and ability of employees of other Governmental agencies so long as those agencies would certify to the State Department concerning the loyalty of the persons involved.

He stated that for this reason the State Department is very desirous of continuing the practice of referring our reports to other Governmental agencies when they fall in the above-mentioned category and desired to know if arrangements could not be perfected whereby this would be authorized by the Bureau and/or the Attorney General. He commented that an exception had been made by the Attorney General with reference to investigative reports compiled by the Bureau relative to delegates to the International Labor Office and he was wondering if it would not be possible to handle these Voice cases in the same manner. He stated that the State Department would be willing to take the initiative in making such a request to the Attorney General if it met with the Bureau's approval. He desired to know the Director's reaction to this request.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that we inform the State Department that we cannot authorize them to transmit our reports to other Governmental agencies which is contrary to the Attorney General's instructions but that if they so desire, they may take it up with the Attorney General to determine if an arrangement can be made comparable to that now being followed in the International Labor Office cases.* It is not believed that the Bureau could institute any action in this matter and that we should stand firm on insisting that our reports not be transmitted beyond the first agency (State Department) without approval of the Attorney General, as such a procedure is objectionable to us and we should act only when requested to do so by the Attorney General.

*The Justice Department, by agreement with the Department of State, made an arrangement whereby the Bureau would send its reports on International Labor Office cases directly to the employing agency and/or the Department of Labor and not to the State Department, the coordinator of the program, as had been done in the past.

*OK. but it seems to me
we are placing ourselves in a ridiculous position by having made this protest & then if they take it up with A.G. to agree to allow the procedure to be legalized.*

Mr. Peyton Ford called on the morning of February 18, 1950, with respect to the above-captioned person. He advised that Major [REDACTED] a friend of his, is presently transferring from the Air Forces to the Department of State, and it is Major [REDACTED] understanding that he was investigated on loyalty grounds by the FBI.

[REDACTED] has asked Mr. Ford if the Bureau's reports on him, [REDACTED] could be sent to the Department of State, c/o [REDACTED] Mr. Ford requested that the reports on Major [REDACTED] be furnished to the State Department.

I initially informed Mr. Ford that I did not think the Bureau would have conducted such an investigation, but I would check the files. I pointed out that in all probability the Office of Special Investigations of the Department of the Air Force would handle such an investigation.

An indices check proved to be negative and, accordingly, Mr. Ford was advised that there was no record of any investigation having been conducted by the FBI concerning Major [REDACTED]

The Department of State, under the loyalty program (Executive Order 9835) signed by President Truman on March 21, 1947, is required to submit loyalty forms on all incumbent employees, which covers all persons on the State Department's pay roll as of October 1, 1947; further loyalty forms must be submitted on all appointees, which includes all employees appointed subsequent to October 1, 1947; in addition, forms also must be submitted on all applicants for positions in the Department of State. Under the loyalty program, the Bureau has been processing these forms as they are received and conducting full field loyalty investigations or preliminary inquiries where there is sufficient disloyal information to warrant such action. It is to be noted specifically that the Loyalty Order covered all employees of the Department of State including Foreign Service personnel.

In addition, the Department of State has advised the Bureau that all personnel of the Department of State, including Departmental and Foreign Service personnel, are included in the Loyalty Program, there being no exemptions.

Under Public Law 402, 80th Congress, officially known as the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, and more familiarly known as the Voice of America Program, which is administered by the Secretary of State, the Bureau is, under Section 1001, required to conduct an investigation of every person who is to be paid from funds covered by this legislation if such individual is a citizen or a resident of the United States. This act was approved January 27, 1948. Thus far, this Bureau has received 4481 cases and has completed 4252.

Under the Greek-Turkey Aid Program, which was initiated by Public Laws 75 and 84 of the 80th Congress, approved May 22, 1947 and May 31, 1947, respectively, the Bureau has received requests from the Department of State for the investigation of 846 individuals and has completed investigations of 842 of them. Such individuals are employees of the Department of State.

Office Memorandum

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : THE DIRECTOR

DATE: February 20, 1950

SUBJECT: EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
CONCERNING WHOM THE BUREAU CONDUCTS INVESTIGATIONS

The Department of State comes within the Loyalty Program (Executive Order 9835 signed by President Truman, March 21, 1947.) Under the Loyalty Order the Department of State is required to submit Loyalty Forms for a search of the Bureau's files on incumbent employees, which covers persons on the State Department's payroll as of October 1, 1947; further, Loyalty Forms must be submitted on all appointees, which includes all employees hired subsequent to October 1, 1947; in addition, Forms also must be submitted on all applicants for positions in the Department of State.

Under the Loyalty Program, the Bureau has been processing Loyalty Forms from the Department of State as they are received, including employees in the Foreign Service personnel of the State Department, such as ambassadors. You may recall that early in the Loyalty Program, the Department of State raised a question concerning their Foreign Service personnel, indicating that since the Foreign Service personnel and their assignments were extremely confidential, they were desirous of utilizing a new type Loyalty Form which would be submitted to the Bureau direct and the results of the processing be returned to the State Department direct rather than through the Civil Service Commission as in other cases. The Executives Conference studied this question and recommended that Loyalty Forms of Foreign Service personnel of the Department of State be submitted to the Bureau and that the results of the processing be transmitted to the Civil Service Commission as in other cases and not directly to the State Department. This matter was then submitted to the Attorney General who advised that the State Department should use Standard Loyalty Forms and our replies should be sent to the Civil Service Commission.

In October, 1948, it was learned through liaison channels that the State Department had received approximately 3200 Loyalty Forms submitted by Foreign Service personnel stationed throughout the world. It was further determined that the Civil Service Commission had permitted the State Department to use Standard Form 84 on all persons regardless of whether they were applicants, appointees or incumbent employees, thus eliminating Loyalty Form 85 which is used in submitting applicant and appointee name checks under the Loyalty Program. It was agreed that the Bureau should process these Forms without trying to determine whether they pertain to applicants, appointees or incumbent employees, but that the results of the processing of these Forms be handled through the Civil Service Commission. The Bureau has continued to process State Department Loyalty Forms under the Loyalty Program as they are received and conduct full field loyalty investigations or preliminary inquiries where there is sufficient disloyal information to warrant such action. Of course, the Bureau has no way of knowing whether Loyalty Forms are submitted on all of the State Department employees since you will recall that the Loyalty Form on Charles Wheeler Thayer was not received in the Bureau until March, 1949.

ENCLOSURE BEHIND FILE

In addition, [redacted] of the State Department in answer to a specific inquiry advised Supervisor Roach of the Liaison Section on February 18, 1950, that all personnel of the Department of State, including Departmental and Foreign Service personnel, are included in the Loyalty Program, "there being no exemptions;" however, on the morning of February 20, 1950, [redacted] advised Mr. Roach that the information furnished to the Bureau on February 18, 1950, was somewhat incorrect, in that Loyalty Forms are not submitted to the Bureau on aliens abroad, hired locally and who have never been in the United States. He stated these consist of chauffeurs, house servants and receptionists, who have no access to confidential files of the State Department. He added that, of course, such employees are investigated by the State Department.

Under Public Law 402, 80th Congress, officially known as the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, and more familiarly known as the Voice of America Program, which is administered by the Secretary of State, the Bureau is, under Section 1001, required to conduct an investigation of every person who is to be paid from funds covered by this legislation if such individual is a citizen or a resident of the United States. This act was approved January 27, 1948. Thus far, this Bureau has received 4481 cases and has completed 4252.

Under the Greek-Turkey Aid Program, which was initiated by Public Laws 75 and 84 of the 80th Congress, approved May 22, 1947, and May 31, 1947, respectively, the Bureau has received requests from the Department of State for the investigation of 846 individuals and has completed investigations of 842 of them. Such individuals are employees of the Department of State.

ACTION: None. This is for your information.

You will recall that [redacted] in the Tax Division of the Department called your office to request a tour for a group of Japanese at 10:00 A.M., March 3, 1950.

The group is one sponsored by the State Department and includes Shigeru Kuriyama, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, of Japan, a representative of the Federation of Bar Associations of Japan, a representative of the Attorney General's office, a judge of Tokyo High Court, and 2 public prosecutors.

This tour was conducted by Special Agent [redacted] of this section. Accompanying the Japanese was [redacted] an attorney attached to the Legal Section of General McArthur's Headquarters.

The exhibit rooms, the firearms range, the laboratory and the traffic diorama were covered. One of the Japanese public prosecutors expressed an interest in examining facilities at Quantico but this interest was not encouraged and he seemed satisfied with the information that the facilities consisted only of classrooms, dormitories and firearms ranges and was at a distance of several miles from the city. All the Japanese seemed very interested in the tour and asked a number of questions. Particularly interested were Judge Kuriyama and the two public prosecutors, or "procurators" as they are called in Japan, [redacted] and [redacted]. The latter two requested that as much material as is available relative to the collection of evidence in criminal cases be furnished them before their departure from Washington.

[redacted] turned over to Special Agent [redacted] a booklet entitled the "The Code of Criminal Procedure" which he explained outlined the Japanese criminal code. He also furnished two copies of "The Outline of Prosecution System in Japan" of which he is the author, and a typewritten statement entitled "The Public Procurator's Office Law." The Director's thanks were expressed by Special Agent [redacted]

[redacted] of the State Department, who accompanied the group, mentioned that one of the Japanese visitors was in possession of a letter of introduction from [redacted] Public Safety, G-2 Headquarters, Tokyo, to the Director and, if possible would like to meet the Director during the group's stay in Washington.

March 6, 1950

On Monday morning March 6th at 10:10 A.M., [redacted] Assistant Legal Adviser, State Department, who is accompanying [redacted] on the trip with the Japanese, called SA [redacted]. He stated that one principal purpose of the State Department sponsored trip was to instruct the Japanese in American methods of law enforcement and administration of justice. He said that the Department would very much appreciate the cooperation of the FBI in allowing the two "procurators," or public prosecutors, who are also charged with collecting the evidence for prosecution, together with possibly one or two others, including the representative of the Japanese Attorney General's office, to come to the FBI and go more thoroughly into methods of collecting evidence in criminal cases. They would want to learn something about how the FBI initiates investigations, collects evidence, and develops cases for prosecution. The intention then is to take the Japanese to the local United States Attorney's office to follow the prosecutive process on through.

[redacted] was told that we would have to see what could be worked out in this regard and that we would recontact him as soon as possible. He requested that he be advised today, if at all possible. Either [redacted] can be reached at the National Hotel, telephone National 5568, and will probably be more readily available there than at the State Department.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. It is recommended that the Director not arrange a personal meeting with [redacted] since it is believed no purpose would be served thereby. It was not indicated that [redacted] had any reason for the meeting except to exchange greetings. If you concur, SA [redacted] will advise [redacted] telephonically that the Director's current heavy schedule just will not permit such commitments at the present time.

2. (a) In view of the importance placed by the State Department representatives on further enlightenment on FBI criminal investigative methods for the Japanese actually engaged in investigation and prosecution as "procurators," and the representative of the Japanese Attorney General's office, it is recommended that a representative of the Training and Inspection Division be made available to meet with them at the Bureau and discuss this matter with them orally, furnishing them with available published material of a public nature at that time. it is recommended that such published material as is available in the Crime Records Section be collected in duplicate and transmitted to [redacted] with the explanation that the pressure of official business will not permit such a meeting.

BACKGROUND

At 7:30 PM, March 3, 1950, Mr. Nichols received a telephone call from [redacted] former Bureau locate clerk who is employed under badge number [redacted] as a Capitol Transfer Company busman. [redacted] advised at this time that he was bringing to the Bureau a black briefcase bearing a steamer sticker which contained confidential restricted documents. According to [redacted] the briefcase and contents were left on his bus.

FACTS

At 7:50 PM, March 3, 1950, [redacted] brought the briefcase to me. It apparently belongs to a State Department employee. It contains a white manila folder labeled "Public Lists and Notices." The contents deal principally with tariff negotiations and include press releases. There is some indication this property belongs to a [redacted]

[redacted] stated that this material was left on his bus, number 3719, at approximately 6:10 PM, and given to him by a passenger. The bus was enroute from Takoma Park to Sixteenth Street and the briefcase was turned in at Connecticut Avenue on K Street.

COMMENT

[redacted] in furnishing this material, stated that he expects to apply for reinstatement in the near future and indicated that his action in furnishing this material to the Bureau was motivated by the hope that such would assist him in being reinstated. I made no comment.

RECOMMENDATION

It is suggested that the briefcase and contents be forwarded via Liaison to the State Department for appropriate disposition. The contents do not appear to be of any interest to this Bureau.

INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Reference is made in the captioned matter to your letter dated December 22, 1949, which forwarded photostatic copies of statements made by the entitled individual to [redacted] Consul of the United States at Paris, France, and to Assistant United States Attorney [redacted]

For your information [redacted] has never been the subject of a Bureau investigation and the New York Office is now under instructions to conduct inquiries to ascertain his current whereabouts so that he can be interviewed. In view of the fact that [redacted] Assistant Chief, Passport Division, Department of State, has volunteered to make available to you his special file concerning the passport records of individuals known to be Communists, the Bureau desires that you conduct a through review of these records.

In reporting the information obtained from this review you should submit separate letters captioned with the name of the individual involved and you should review your indices to make certain that the information has not been previously forwarded to the Bureau. You should advise the Bureau as promptly as possible of the date you contemplate the completion of this project.
